

HSM Risk Assessment

Borchgrevink's 'Southern Cross' Hut - Cape Adare

DETAILS

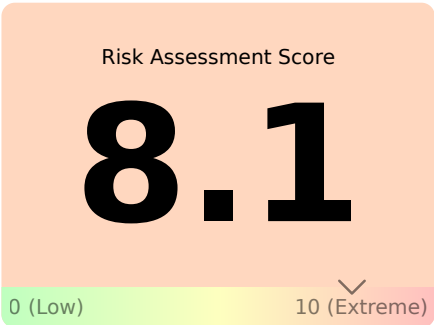

Shared 2025-12-27

Created 2025-01-29 15:42:56

Owner guest

Description

Three huts and associated historic relics at Cape Adare. Two were built in February 1899 during the British Antarctic (Southern Cross) Expedition, 1898–1900, led by Carsten E. Borchgrevink. The third was built in February 1911 by Robert F. Scott's Northern Party, led by Victor L.A.Campbell. Scott's Northern Party hut has largely collapsed with only the porch standing in 2002. Site incorporated within ASPA 159.

Risk Assessment Details

1	Is the HSM comprised of durable materials?	No	5	Is the HSM located 3m or less above sea level?	Yes
2	Is the HSM located in the Western Antarctic (i.e., west of the Transantarctic Mountains)?	Yes	6	Is the HSM located within 100m of shoreline?	Yes
3	Is the HSM located on the Antarctic Peninsula, South Orkney Islands, or South Shetland Islands?	No	7	Does the HSM site have steep slopes (i.e., greater than 20%)?	No
4	Is the HSM located at a coastal site?	Yes	8	Is the HSM situated on permafrost soils?	Yes